

You are invited to showcase your organization's products and services at the

Georgia Juvenile Services Association

41st Annual Training Summit

Hilton Savannah Desoto Hotel

Savannah, GA

August 22-24, 2012

Please join the conference planning committee in preparing for the 41st Annual Training Summit, in Savannah, Georgia. The planning committee is a collaborative of representatives from agencies across the state of Georgia, including Department of Juvenile Justice, Department of Human Resources, and Division of Mental Health, Developmental Diseases and Addictive Diseases. However, this conference would be incomplete without you. Please take time to review all the information enclosed, visit our website at www.gjsa.net, and give strong consideration to join us again this year.

WHO ATTENDS THIS CONFERENCE?

This event brings together:

- Department of Juvenile Justice Professionals
- Department of Human Resource Professionals
- Juvenile Court Judges
- Attorneys
- Law Enforcement
- Private Providers

WHY SHOULD YOU PARTICIPATE?

The professionals attending this conference represent almost every sector of Georgia's child welfare system and a broad range of programs and services. They are constantly striving to improve service provision through innovative products and services that help their organizations enhance the quality and effectiveness of services for children and families. As an exhibitor and/or sponsor, you will:

- Enjoy targeted networking opportunities with a diverse audience of over 300 conference attendees
- Generate new business for your organization
- Increase visibility for your products, services, and programs
- Demonstrate your organization's leadership in child welfare and commitment to supporting those who provide services to children and families
